Good Afternoon Folks,

I would like to share an opportunity with Durham Regional Police Service.
Please share this email with your contacts who would benefit from this great opportunity.

We invite you to register and join us at the 5th Annual Women's Recruiting Symposium!

The duties within policing are both challenging and rewarding. To assist females interested in joining the policing industry, the Durham Regional Police Service (DRPS) will be hosting our 5th Women's Recruiting Symposium. After a successful virtual event last year, DRPS members will provide information to females exploring a career in law enforcement.

We invite you to attend and gain further exposure into policing with DRPS. Come and meet female members, including the Recruiting Unit to learn about the hiring process and what it takes to become an employee of DRPS.

Come interact with insightful:

- Panel discussions with female members on their careers in policing
- Information on the current hiring process
- Exposure to different units within the organization

Date: Saturday, November 13, 2021

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. (Sign-in begins at 8:30 a.m.)

Virtual: Zoom Conferencing Platform

To register, log onto our website, follow the career links and register by applying for the DRPS Women's Recruiting Symposium 2021. A cover letter, resume/ OR letter of interest document is required; however, it will not be used in the selection process. If you do not have a DRPS account, one will need to be created prior to completing the registration process. The deadline to register is October 22, 2021.

If you have questions about the symposium or registration process, please feel free to contact us at recruiting@drps.ca
