Our drive-in headquarters at the Whitby Municipal Building isn't just a great venue to take in a film — it's also the perfect place for a picnic!

Thursday's films don't start 'til dusk, but you can arrive as early as 6:30 to grab a parking spot with a great view, and enjoy dinner al fresco before the show.

There are some great independently-owned restaurants offering takeout just a short stroll away:

- Charley Ronick's Pub and Restaurant
- Fine Taste Hakka Chinese
- Maimana Naan and Kabab

For the comfort and safety of all our attendees, we kindly ask that you stay a safe distance from other picnic-ers, and be sure to stay in your vehicle once the show begins.

DRIFF Directors Chat: Sudz Sutherland, Jennifer Holness, and Alicia K. Harris

This month, our highlighted filmmakers take a deep dive into their creative processes, and discuss their experiences as Black filmmakers telling unapologetically Black stories in Canada.

A note on safety.

DRIFF continues to take the lead from our public health experts while we host our drive-in events throughout the summer months of 2021.
